

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS PLAY A SUCCESS

"1921 Minstrel Revue" Receives Enthusiastic Reception On Opening Night.

Tuneful lyrics, bright lines, flapper choruses second to none ever seen here, snappy acting and a lack of first night backwardness, all combined to make a success Thursday night of the opening performance of the Knights of Columbus "1921 Minstrel Revue," at the Rialto Theatre. The entertainment was played before a capacity audience, and was enthusiastically received.

Local critics pronounced the entertainment one of the district's best amateur offerings. At the second performance tonight, the theatre is expected to be filled. There has been a splendid sale of tickets for the second and finale performance.

It would be difficult to name an outstanding star throughout the play. While some of them were amateurs, others were artists, and together they produced an entertainment full of pep and fun. George A. Williams, of the John B. Rogers Producing Company, was in charge of the play, and selected the cast and directed the play.

The play opened with a clever Minstrel First Part, with the following as comedians: John Wagner, Chas. Flaherty, Earl Wagner, Eddie Maher, Lawrence Nordin, Joe Kennedy, Lawrence Tucker and Claude White.

The chorus was composed of the following: Misses Rose Smith, Loretta Henry, Anna Moody, Gertrude Frossard, Marie Randall, Laneta Randall, Ruth Frossard, Fern Heyburn, Lucille Wagner and Ruth Gimbel.

A. J. Ruscha acted as Interlocutor. Solo numbers were given by Miss Ruth Gimbel, Miss Lucille Wagner, Miss Fern Heyburn, Anna Martin, Lawson Nordin, Earl Wagner, Charles Flaherty, Lawrence Tucker.

In the third episode Miss Rose Smith and Mr. George A. Williams appeared in a clever sketch "All For You." Miss Smith took the part of Sarah Reed and Mr. Williams took the part of Filbert Nutta, a traveling man. They were supported by a chorus composed of Misses Loretta Henry, Anna Moody, Gertrude Frossard, Marie Randall, Ruth Gimbel, Ruth Frossard, Laneta Randall, Fern Heyburn, Lucille Wagner.

Following this act Mrs. McGrath gave several short readings and impersonations, and was called back several times by encore. Mrs. McGrath is a rare artist, and her part of the program was heartily received. "Nothing But Rice" a clever bit of acting by Mr. Lawrence Welsh and Earl Wagner was a scream from start to finish. Mr. Welsh was a man of ideas, known as "Henry Hunter." The part of Philip Withgrub a gentleman from Georgia, was acted by Mr. Wagner. Ed Maher took the part of the Mandarin, and Miss Gertrude Maher took the part of the Mandarin's daughter, Ming Toi.

These characters are very ably assisted by two pretty Chinese choruses which consist of Misses Josephine Martin, Isabelle Dwyer, Helen Attaway, Marie Ryan and Rose Exposito, and Helen Maher as Chinese maids.

As Coolies are Joe Jake, Robert Holland, George Johnston, Jack Attaway, Bill Bowler and Louis McKenna. "Circus Day in Dixie" was an act showing the comedy side of negro life. The act was full of clever action, catchy choruses and was brought to a close by a rousing Southern hoedown. In this part, the following were at their best: John Wagner as Mammy, Joe Kennedy, as Bad Bill; Lawrence Tucker, as Zeke; Charles Flaherty, as Dan; and Ed Maher as the Showman.

The part of the plantation boys and girls were taken by Phil DeBrosse, Clem Koenig, James Moody, L. Roetto, Buck McKenna and Bill Bowler.

"Rube Hornsby's Trio," composed of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rice, Chas. Horton, George Morris, Mrs. Autca and Mrs. W. A. Loupee, was fine, and people in the audience found it hard to keep their feet on the floor. They played real "old time" music, and A. L. Nordin "jigged" to their accompaniment.

The finale was the appearance of the complete caste of characters.

TRAVELERS MUST SHOW PROOF OF VACCINATION

All Missouri railroads and common carriers engaged in interstate and intercounty traffic will be ordered to require certificates of vaccination from all prospective travelers on and after December 15 as a preventative against the spread of smallpox, in compliance with a resolution adopted Monday night at the University Club by the State Board of Health.

The resolution says that smallpox "being prevalent in virulent and dangerous form in some localities throughout the state," must be combated effectively and at once. It points out that vaccination is the only known preventive and orders that railroads must require a certificate from each prospective passenger showing that such passenger is protected by vaccination or has been successfully vaccinated within the last three years.

IN MEMORY OF MOTHER

America D. Collar (formerly America D. Brock) was born in Cole County, Mo., on January 10, 1847, departed this life November 21, 1921, age 74 years, 10 months and 11 days. At the age of 24 she was married to Washington I. Collar. To this union were born nine children, 6 of whom survive her. 3 having departed this life (Ettie, Charley and Willie) those who survive her are Mrs. Pruda Marion, Mrs. F. F. Hultgren, Mr. Monta, Albert, Ernest and Homer Collar. In the year 1880 she moved to Barry county where in 1896 God saw fit to call her companion leaving her with 6 children which she raised to manhood and womanhood. After which she sold the old homestead and since has been making her home with her daughter Mrs. F. F. Hultgren who now resides north of Verona. At the age of 24 she was converted and later joined the Baptist church where she lived a faithful, consistent christian life until death came, ever doing her part, not in a public way, but in a silent, calm and gentle manner. She leaves a host of friends to mourn her loss but our loss will be her eternal gain, for she has entered that home where there will be no more suffering, no more heart aching but all is peace joy and happiness.

Precious mother thou has left us. We will miss thee from our side But if we are true and faithful We shall meet beyond the tide.

Husband too passed on before thee Oh how sad the hours will be But we bow to highest heaven Meekly, say God's will be done.

Thou wilt stand as a guarding Angel Beckoning to thy children dear As we journey through this cold world We will often feel thee near.

Mother, Husband we will meet you On that Eternal shore Where there'll be no grief nor heart aches All is joy for ever more.

Written by a loving daughter, Mrs. F. F. Hultgren.

HOW NOT TO TAKE COLD

Some persons are subject to frequent colds, while others seldom, if ever, have a cold. You will find that the latter takes good care of themselves. They take a shower or cold sponge bath every day in a warm room, avoid over heated rooms, sleep with a window open or partly open, avoid excesses, over eating, becoming over heated and then chilled and getting the feet wet. Then, when they feel the first indication of a cold, they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay and it is soon over.
